

Libation Vacation

DAY ONE

Beachaven Vineyards and Winery is a trailblazer in Tennessee winemaking that recently celebrated 30 years of filling goblets and spreading cheer. Take a complimentary tour and learn about the wine-making process. You'll want to plan a little extra time simply to peruse the top-notch gift shop. Sample an array of award-winning varieties for only $5. Enjoy one of their many unique events, including Jazz on the Lawn on scheduled Saturday evenings from May-October. Don't forget your picnic!

Just around the corner is Old Glory Distilling Company, a small batch, grass-to-grain distillery offering Old Glory Tennessee Vodka, Smooth Shine and Jumper's Stash White Rum and Premium Tennessee Whiskey. Tours and tastings are available here, and again, you'll find unexpected treasure at the gift shop.

DAY TWO

No beer-lover's travel is complete without a taste of local brews.

Blackhorse Pub and Brewery in historic downtown Clarksville is regionally known for fresh brewed, handcrafted beer paired with gourmet pizza and pastas. Newly introduced beers include Barrel Aged Peach Saison, Dry Cider, Tennessee Sour Ale and Southern Imperial Stout. Enjoy lunch, dinner or Sunday Brunch.

Strawberry Alley Ale Works is a brewery and restaurant opening in the spring of 2018 in historic downtown

Clarksville. Enjoy a made-from-scratch recipes, original beer selections brewed in-house, craft cocktails and top-quality wines.

Two craft breweries joined the local scene in 2017. Star Spangled Brewing specializes in small batch, high gravity beers and root beer. With nine beers and a homemade root beer always on tap, you'll find a diverse selection.

Tennessee Valley Brewing offers a cozy atmosphere with hand-crafted tables and bar-tops. Favorites include their American Wheat IPA, Night Stalker Stout, and the Grapefruit Raddler.

Don't end your visit to Clarksville without indulging your taste buds.

Ethnic restaurants satisfy any international craving, plus you'll also find top-notch authentic southern fare like barbecue and catfish.
